Twentieth Century Viewpoints is designed for senior history students. Unit One: 1900-1945 is a chronological study of the first half of the twentieth century. Unit Two: The Cold War focuses on relations between the United States and the Soviet Union until the end of the Cold War. Unit Three: The Global Village highlights world regions, including case studies of specific countries. Special features include Profiles, which provide snapshots of key individuals, and Voices, which present opinions and analyses about important events and issues. Each chapter includes review questions and enrichment activities. A key feature in each chapter is Viewpoints in which noted authorities present opposing opinions as they argue for or against important issues or questions. The text is illustrated with photographs, maps, and diagrams.
